government, which pays $2,000 a year and fees.

The success of ex-Mayor Grant in making money in the railroad advertising business induced John J. Gilroy to compete for the Third Avenue Cable line contract. Carleton & Kissam bid $20,000 for it. Young Gilroy offered $1.00 more and got it. Ex-Mayor Grant also wanted the contract, which is said to be worth about $10,000 a year in profits, but he is out of power and can no longer grant favors to corporations, so it went to Gilroy, whose father recently appointed Albert J. Elias, Presseent of the Third Avenue Railroad Company, a School Commissione.

Son-in-Law Michael J. Muiqueen, like son Thomas, is a lawyer, and like him a court favorite for references and Commissioner of Appraisal in land condemnation proceedings. But the big fees he gets for very little work in such cases are a beggarly pittance to the princely sum he expects to make out of the Ein street widening and extension proceedings. The property owners whose land is to be taken by condemnation and to be appraised by a Commission, which will no doubt consist of Tammuny favorites, have found it convenient to their interests to employ Mulqueen as their counsel. It is estimated that the job will net him at least $50,000.

Southwestern Stock Farm. Wonder and curiosity over the source nd amount of Richard Croker's wealth have again been aroused by the anent from San Antonio this morning that Mr. Croker intended to buy a big ranch in Texas.

The despatch says that Mr. Croker decided to make this addition to his landed property after a visit to the stock farm San Antonio. He proposes, it is said, to purchase a ranch adjoining Mr. Morris's, and go into the business of horseraising and training in the Southwest on a more extensive scale than at pres-

Stocking ranches and buying land takes money, which would make it appear, if the report from Texas is correct, that Mr. Croker's bank account was not so depleted as he would have people to believe when he put a $50,000 mortgage on his new nouse in this city shortly before he went away.

It is not long since Mr. Croker paid a quarter of a million dollars for an interest in the Belie Meade Stock Farm. He paid nearly $100,000 for his racehorses.

GILROYS MAKING HAY. NO DELAY FOR SUTHERLAND.

Three or Four Days.

The second trial of Kenneth F. Sutherland, the Gravesend Justice of the Peace who locked up the Gayner copyists and otherwise oppressed and maltreated them, as the indictment charges, on the Sunday before last election day, began in earnest this morning before Justice Brown, in the Brooklyn Oyer and Ter-sions on the Second Trial.

The jury which is to try him this tier made up as follows:

This jury, as in the case of the Mc-Kane trial and the previous trial of Sutherland, is under the continual care

Sutherland, is under the continual care and supervision of a court officer, and as long as the trial lasts will be kept at the St. George Hotel and not allowed tycommunicate with any outsiders until they have rendered their verdict or have been discharged.

Justice Brown is determined that there shall be no delay in the prosecution of the Gravesend cases, and so long as he is sitting in Oyer and Terminer there will be three sessions of the court daily instead of two, as herefore.

The evening session will continue from 7 till 10 o'clock every day until the case is finished. Under this arrangement the trial should not last more than two or three days at the most.

This morning the court opened at 10 o'clock. Edward M. Shepard, Col. A. E. Jamb and Jere Wernberg, the special District-Attorneys, were on hand to take care of the prosecution, while Col. E. C. James, who will take a more prominent part in the present trial of Sutherland than he did in the first, was present to reinforce Lawyers Backus and Roderick in looking after the interests of the defendant.

Col. Lamb began his opening address to the bire as agon as the source.

Col. Lamb began his opening address to the Jury as soon as the court convened. He went over the same ground as in his previous opening, explaining fully the provisions of the election laws and describing how these had been ignored by the election officers of Gravesend.

Then he went on to describe the efforts of Mr. Gaynor to get copies of the registry lists of the town, and finally gave a vivid picture of the midnight excursion of the convists to the Graves end Town Hall the Saturday night prior to Election Day; their arrival at the depot; their arraignment before Sutherland, who held a special session of his court at the Town Hall; their imprisonment in the foul lock-up at the Coney, Island Police Headquarters, and finally their commitment the next morning by Sutherland to the Raymond Street Jali in Brooklyn, where they were obliged to remain all day Sunday and until 10 o'clock the next morning, when they were taken before Justice Cullen, of the Supreme Court, on writs of habeas corpus and released.

ANOTHER FORWARD STEP.

Sub-Committees of the Executive Con mittee of the State Democracy Appointed.

Charles S. Fairchild, Chaleman of the Execuive Committee of the New York State Democ racy, yesterday announced the sub-committees which are to perfect the organization in this city. The severe attack of pneumonia from which the ex-secretary of the Treasury has been suffering for the past four or five weeks has delayed these apprintments. The most important sub-committee is the or on Permanent Organization, which is composed

Wheeler H. Peckham, Smith Ely, Abram S. Hewsti, Hichard V. Harnett, William H. Grace, Charles J. Cauda, George Walton Green, William F. Robertson, James J. Slevin, John Fennel, John Recoks Leavitt, Thomas F. Keeting, John J. Quinlan, Samuel H. Oriway, J. F. Harder, This committee will secure permanent head

Henry R. Beekman, Charles J. Canda, Joseph F. Mosher, John G. Agar, E. B. Woodward, Seth S. Terry, John Frankenheimer, L. J. Caliaran, Richard V. Harnett, Lawrence Wells, Robert S. Minturn, Dr. H. A. C. Auderson, Lloyd McK. Garrison, Boger Foster, Oacar S. Straus, Theodore Sutro, Everett P. Wiseler, Simon Sterne, Hugh L. Cole, William Salomon, Edward J. H. Tanisen.

These two committees will come together for organization some day next week and, it is said, will get down to work at once. It is also said that $10,000 involuntary subscriptions have already been offered for the permanent headquarters.

There is another committee which is somewhat of an innovation in New York City factional and party organizations. It is a committee on conference with other county organizations. This work is generally done by the "bosses" themselves, and it is altogether probable in this case that while neither Mr. Grace nor Mr. Fairchild is on the committee their advice will be asked when any conference is held with other county organizations. The committee consists of Robert Grier Monroe, Albert Stickney, John De Witt Warner, John Jeroloman, Peter B. Olney, Denis McEvoy and Lawrence E. Sexton.

The districts in which the State Democracy have already a thorough temporary organization are the Second, where John P. Murray has an enrolment of 500 men; the Seventh, where John Ferniel, Otto Kempner and Henry Flegenheimer control fully one-half the district voic, and the Eighth, where W. F. Hull, John Martin, Theodore Sutro, Thomas Dunham and L. J. Callahan have a good organization. Ex. Sub. Transurer Charles Hull, John Marin, Theodore Sulto, Thomas Dunham and L. J. Callahan have a scool organization. Ex-sub-Transurer Charles J. Canda is at the head of a fair organization in the Ninth District. The Thirteenth, under Thomas F. Keating, and the Fifteenth under Cax-Judge Jeroloman and Thomas Costigan, have a fair organization that only Leeds the stamp of the permanent organization committee in order to divide the Tammany general committees. In the Eighteenth, L. P. Mingay, a hustling young lawyer, has a goot organization and every day is curolling Tammany men not friendly to the Plunkitt-McManus clear corporation. In the Seventeenth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-toird, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-sighth there are big anti-Tammany organizations. This is especially true of the Tacuty-fourth, where John J. Quimlan is drawing of members of the Tammany committees every day in numbers that bid fair to break down Larry Pelmour's leadership.

children, lives on the top floor of the three-story house at the number designated.

A postal card was received at the Health Board office yesterday, but the name of the writer does not appear nor could it be obtained in the neighborhood where the nuisance is alleged to exist. The complainant writes that he cannot sleep by night, and his brain is made weary by day with the continuous crowing of blind Mr. Balarini's ambitious chanticleer. He therefore asks the aid of the health inspectors and mediators to abate the nuisance.

An "Evening World" man ascertained that Mr. Balarini four months ago bought two chickens, a rooster and shen. He constructed a rude coop on the roof, where the burds were kept when the weather was of medium temperature, but on blizzard days were taken almost illerally into the bosom of the family. There they remained as long as the household could stand the splitting sounds which emanated from the leather-lynged rooster, and then they were again banished to the roof.

While on the latter elevation the Shanghai is in his element, and in response to his clarion call, come echoes from half a dozen crowing throats that were never known to have an existence in the neighborhood before.

In the early hours of the morning, especially during the present Spring-like weather, the din from the lusty chorus is heard high above the rattle of passing "L" trains. Now, somebody wants the noise stopped.

There seems to be plenty of fowls in the vicinity, and the number is steadily increasing. Gustav La Teir, of 125 South Fifth avelue, has a coop on his back stoop with three chickens in it, one a rooster that is becoming a formidable vocal rival of the Balarini rooster. Mr. La Teir is going to eat them when they get good and fat, according to blind Mr. Balarini.

dered the Court has no other alternative than to impose the death penalty. The lefendant will claim that the killing was lefendant will claim that the killing was lone in self-defense. George Dunn was employed as night engineer in the Mariborough Hotel, and dived with his wife and child at 166 West Twenty - sixth street, occupying two cooms on the third floor. The couple sot along happily together until a tew months before the tragedy took place. Then Mrs. Dunn began to drink heavily, and was remeved to the New York Hospital suffering with delirium tremens.

After she was discharged from the nonpital she promised to reform. She did for a time, but a few weeks before the alleged murder her husband, on reaching some after working all night, found her pital she promised to reform. She did for a time, but a few weeks before the alleged murder her husband, on reaching nome after working all night, found her helplessly drunk.

He refused to give her any money. That evening she called on him at the hotel and got some money from him by telling him that the baby was sick and needed medicine. Dunn afterwards earned that she had spent the money for liquor. After this, it is claimed, the Dunns had continual fights, which finally sulminated in the murder.

The prosecution will produce witnesses sho will testify that a few days prior to Dunn's death, they saw Mrs. Dunn pick ap a hammer and threaten to strike her ausband with it if he did not cease calling her vile names.

On the night of the crime Dunn reached his rooms about 11 o'clock. His wife was intoxicated, and refused at first to open the door for him. A quarrel collowed, and then everything was quiet until about 2 o'clock, when Msr. Dunn pened a window and asked Mrs. Saumier, the wife of a restaurant-keeper in the basement, to come up to her room. Mrs. Saumler was busy and could not go, but sent Adrian Formsge and Louis fin, two of her boarders. On opening the door they found Mrs. Dunn leaning against the wall. Her face and dress were covered with blood. In an adjoining room Dunn was stretched out on a bed. His face and nead were a mass of bruises, and the Aails and furnishings were spotted with blood. By his side lay the seventeenmonth-old baby.

It is alleged that Mrs. Dunn in her trenzy, cried out: "I've killed him because he called me a had name."

Policeman Buchanan, of the West Phirtieth street tsation, was called in, and after summoning an ambulance from the New York Hospital placed Mrs. Dunn under arrest. Dunn died from a fractured skull, and that there were more than twenty marks of a hammer on his face and neck. The bloody hammer is also in evidence.

the world have written in womanly confidence to Lydia E. Pinkham at Lydia E. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and laid bare the life of misery they endured. They wrote freely, knowing that their letters went straight to the hands of a woman, who not alone understood their sufferings, but whose heart was full of sympathy with them. The experience of thousands has proved how carefully their letters were studied, and how true and sure came the answer and helpfulness.

And also that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is woman's great friend.

They met Charles Frickenson, aged twelve, of 264 Union street, on Court street, near Union street, last night and robbed him of a silver watch. One of the youthful robbers grabbed the boy by the throat while the other searched his pockets. After securing their booty they ran away.

The boys were arrested at their homes this morning. rested Sunday on the charge of being members of rested at Grand Rapids, Mich., and yesterday Mar tin Cohen was taken into custody in this city. It Scientific.

The reason why success invariably attends certain men is that they work scientifically. They take no chances, do not believe in luck, but in skilled labor. Allcock's Porous Plaster always succeeds because it is scientifically prepared for its work, which is the relief of any sickness or pains resulting from closing the pores of the skin by taking cold. It is a sure cure for backache or congestion of any kind. Beware of imitations, and de not be deceived by misrepresenta-tions. Ask for Allcock's Porous Plaster, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.
